

Ft. Lowell Performances by the 4th Cavalry Band

The Old Arizona Brass Band announces dates for their three performances at Ft. Lowell Park, next to the Museum, during the Band's 2011-2012 Performance Season . This will be the second year for these performances, in cooperation with the Arizona Historical Society and the Old Fort Lowell Neighborhood Association. Here are the dates:

Saturday, November 5, 2011

Saturday, February 11, 2012 (Part of the Annual Ft. Lowell Days Celebration)

Saturday, April 7, 2012

Each concert will start at 2:00 PM and will be free to the public.

A new element this next Season will be that the Arizona Historical Society is arranging for Living History Performers to provide demonstrations and entertainment at the Museum in the hours prior to the band concert. Each concert will be different and feature authentic music from the Arizona Territorial period. The Ft. Lowell Museum, operated by the Arizona Historical Society, will be open with free admission on these Saturdays. The Old Arizona Brass Band, a 501 c (3) non-profit organization, is starting its 15th year of performing in Southern Arizona. More information about the band can be found on the Band's website: www.oabb.homestead.com

For additional information or questions, contact Band President, John Prokop at jfprokop@comcast.net