

YOUR GUIDES

AHS Docent Shirley Pinkerton as Larcena Pennington Scott

Larcena Pennington Scott (1837-1913)

Larcena was a member of one of the first Anglo pioneer families of Southern Arizona. She survived a brutal kidnapping by Apache Indians and later became the first president of the Society of Arizona Pioneers Ladies Auxiliary.

AHS Docent Mari Martin as Sister Monica Corrigan/Maria Wakefield Fish

Sister Monica Corrigan (1843-1929)

Summoned by Bishop Salpointe, Sister Monica was one of the first nuns to come to Tucson. She began Tucson's first girls' school and worked for St. Mary's Hospital from 1882-1892. She was the last survivor of the Seven Sisters of Carondelet.

Maria Wakefield Fish (1845-1909)

Traveling west to California, Maria met John Wasson, publisher of the local newspaper, who convinced her to teach school in Tucson. She married Edward Nye Fish, a local businessman, in 1874.
